INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

Relevant Terms

1. A “merchant cash advance,” also called an “MCA,” is a form of alternative financing that provides a business fast access to funds based on their previous income or sales. An MCA company typically provides the client business, referred to as a “merchant,” upfront financing in exchange for a portion of the merchant’s future receivables at a discount or fixed periodic payments taken directly from the merchant’s bank account. MCA financing is typically used by small and medium-sized businesses in need of short-term financing. Although MCA financing is often more expensive than traditional small business loans, it is often faster and easier to obtain.

2. A “Ponzi” or “Ponzi scheme” is an investment fraud scheme that involves the payment of claimed returns to existing investors from funds contributed by new investors. Ponzi scheme organizers often solicit new investors by promising to invest funds in opportunities claimed to generate high returns with little or no risk. In many Ponzi schemes, the participants focus on attracting new investments to make promised payments to earlier-stage investors to create the false appearance that investors are profiting from a legitimate business. Ponzi schemes require a consistent flow of new investor funds to continue and tend to collapse when it becomes difficult to obtain sufficient new investor funds or when a large number of investors ask for their investment principal back.

Conspiracy to Commit Wire Fraud and Mail Fraud
(18 U.S.C. § 1349)

1. The General Allegations section of this Indictment is realleged and fully incorporated herein by reference.

2. From at least as early as in or around October 2020, and continuing through on or about August 12, 2021, in Miami-Dade and Broward Counties, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendant, did willfully, that is, with the intent to further the object of the conspiracy, and knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with Pavel Ramon Ruiz Hernandez, and with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit offenses against the United States, that is:

JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA,

(a) to knowingly, and with the intent to defraud, devise, and intend to devise, a scheme and artifice to defraud, and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, knowing the pretenses, representations, and promises were false and fraudulent when made, and for the purpose of executing the scheme and artifice to defraud, did knowingly transmit and cause to be transmitted, by means of wire communications in interstate and foreign commerce, certain writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343; and

(b) to knowingly, and with the intent to defraud, devise, and intend to devise, a scheme and artifice to defraud, and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, knowing the pretenses, representations, and promises were false and fraudulent when made, and for the purpose of executing the scheme and artifice to defraud, did knowingly cause to be delivered certain mail matter by the United States Postal Service and by private and commercial interstate carrier, according to the direction thereon, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1341.

Purpose of the Conspiracy

3. It was a purpose of the conspiracy for JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators to unlawfully enrich themselves by soliciting investor funds through materially false and fraudulent representations and promises concerning, among other things, the true nature of the investment, the existence of MCA loans, the use of investor funds, and the source of investor payments, all so the defendant and her co-conspirators could use investors' funds for their own personal benefit and that of others, and to make payments to existing investors using new investor funds.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

The manner and means by which the defendant and her co-conspirators sought to accomplish the purpose and object of the conspiracy included, among others, the following:

4. MJ Capital purportedly engaged in the business of providing merchant cash advances to businesses in Florida and throughout the United States in exchange for agreed upon periodic payments over a specified period of time. MJ Capital promoted its MCAs as a short-term, high-cost, alternative financing solution for small and medium-sized businesses that needed fast up-front funding.

5. JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators, directly and indirectly, fraudulently solicited money from investors purportedly to fund MCAs by falsely promising significant returns, typically 10% per month (an annual rate of 120%).

6. JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators, through MJ Capital, falsely and fraudulently claimed that MJ Capital's investment offerings permitted investors to "purchase" a portion of merchants' future receivables. MJ Capital instructed its personnel and affiliates to use the term "merchant" instead of "borrower," "order payment" instead of "loan amount" or "principal," "purchaser" instead of "investor," and "purchase of future receivables" instead of "investment."

7. JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators, directly and indirectly, recruited individuals to solicit investors to invest in MJ Capital's investment offerings at various locations in Miami-Dade and Broward Counties, in the Southern District of Florida. As part of the effort to raise additional investor funds, GARCIA and her co-conspirators incentivized these individuals by offering and paying commissions, typically 10% or more of the amount of investor funds raised.

8. Persons raising funds for MJ Capital were called “account representatives.” Successful account representatives could be promoted to “managers.” Account representatives and managers were organized into groups within MJ Capital, with each group overseen by a “board member.” JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and Pavel Ramon Ruiz Hernandez were board members of MJ Capital.

9. JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA, her co-conspirators, and others, on behalf of MJ Capital, provided and entered into written investment agreements with investors. These investment agreements made materially false and fraudulent statements and representations to investors, including concerning the use of investor funds and the source of investor returns.

10. Based on false and fraudulent representations to investors, JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and Pavel Ramon Ruiz Hernandez received and collected MJ Capital investor funds in cash and through deposits via check and electronic bank transfers, often involving interstate wire communications and mailings, into various accounts, including GARCIA's personal accounts, and accounts in the name of Ruiz Hernandez, MJ Capital, MJ Taxes, MJ Enterprise, UDM Remodeling, and Pavel Ruiz MJCF.

11. Notwithstanding JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirator's false and fraudulent representations to investors regarding the nature of the MJ Capital investment, the finances, operation, and profitability of MJ Capital, and the use of investor funds, MJ Capital only funded a few MCAs and failed to earn anywhere near the profits it needed to pay the investor returns and principal promised investors. As a result, GARCIA and her co-conspirators paid investor returns by running a large Ponzi scheme, paying existing investors using new investor funds.

12. While continuing to solicit new investments, JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators misappropriated existing MJ Capital investor funds for their own personal use and benefit. GARCIA and her co-conspirators misappropriated millions of dollars to pay for, among other things, personal expenses, luxury goods, vehicles, vacations, and entertainment, and to make personal investments.

13. JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators never informed MJ Capital investors that they diverted investor funds for their own personal use and benefit and to pay investor returns. Instead, GARCIA and her co-conspirators falsely and fraudulently represented to investors that investment funds were being used to fund MCA loans.

14. To induce investors to invest in MJ Capital, JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA and her co-conspirators, directly and indirectly, made materially false and fraudulent statements and representations to investors, and concealed and omitted material facts to investors, concerning the nature of the MJ Capital investment, the finances, operation, and profitability of MJ Capital, and the use of investor funds, including, among others, the following:

Materially False Representations

- (a) that the investor's money would be used to fund MJ Capital's MCAs;
- (b) that investor returns would be paid from the profits of MJ Capital's MCA business;
- (c) that MJ Capital had a minimal rate of default on its MCAs and that it had a system in place to collect payment on the MCAs, including using underwriters to vet merchants soliciting loans, liens to secure loans, and lawyers to collect payment when necessary; and

- (d) that MJ Capital's MCA business was sufficiently robust and profitable to be the source of the investor returns and to guarantee investors' capital.

Concealment and Omission of Material Facts

- (e) MJ Capital only funded a few MCAs;
- (d) that investor's money would be used to pay investor returns; and
- (e) that JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA, Pavel Ramon Ruiz Hernandez, and others, misappropriated investor funds for their own use and benefit.

15. As a result of JOHANNA MICHELY GARCIA's and her co-conspirators' false and fraudulent misrepresentations and omissions discussed above, from in or around October 2020, through in or around August 2021, GARCIA fraudulently obtained at least approximately $190,700,000 dollars from retail investors in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.
